(OPEN TO THE PUBLIC)

On New Year's Day, the McHenry Sportsman's Club will host its annual HANGOVER Shoot. It is so named because of old traditions, being the day after New Year's Eve. Bring a dish to pass along with your shotgun. There are three ways to choose from. Come out for a day of food and fun.

- You can shoot a JACKRABBIT format event and who knows, you may even win something. You will definitely have fun.

Two Rounds of Trap (1 Singles Round followed by 1 Handicap Round)

Program cost is $20 to the shooter
$1.00 to High Gun – ties divide
$9.00 to Lewis Class – one money, ties divide
$10.00 to the Club

- Meat Shoot – Green Bird Event (easier to see than white birds in the winter). Cost of the event is $5.00. Ten targets per round (2 at each station). All “green” birds presented participate in the green bird count. Ties in the broken green targets will be determined by the total number of targets broken out of the ten targets.
- Practice traps will be open.
